

2018 COMMUNITY HARVEST AND HUNT QUESTIONNAIRE

Atikameksheng Anishnawbek is looking at coordinating a 2018 Atikameksheng Anishnawbek Community Harvest and Hunt and would like your assistance in planning. Please read the questionnaire and answer the questions below and return to the Band Administration/Health Office by November 30, 2017. You can drop the completed form at the Band Administration/Health Office, fax to 705-692-5010, email to cnootchtai@wfn.com.

1. Do you recommend Atikameksheng Anishnawbek host a Community Harvest and Hunt? Yes/No
2. Would you attend a Community Harvest and Hunt? Yes No
3. How long should this event last? 3 days 5 days 7 days
4. If yes, what location do you recommend?
 - In Atikameksheng Anishnawbek
 - In the Traditional Territory
 - In the Treaty Territory
5. What activities would you like to see at the Community Harvest and Hunt?
 - Hunting
 - Cranberry Picking
 - Medicine Harvesting
 - Traditional Crafts
 - Cooking – Teaching
 - Canning/Preserving
 - Fishing and learning to fillet fish
 - Goose Hunting (hunting/cleaning/cooking)
 - Trapping (trap/clean/cooking)
 - Games – teach young ones old hand games Atikameksheng Anishnawbek style
 - Butchering (teaching)
 - Basket Weaving
 - Compass/Map Reading (hands on learning)

If you would like to see an activity that is not posted above, please provide your suggested activity below:

_____	_____
_____	_____

Are you willing to teach any of the above activities or know someone who can teach this skill;

_____	_____
_____	_____

6. Would you be willing to sit on a group to plan this event? Yes No

If yes, please come to the next meeting or call the Health Centre to add your name to the Group.

Part of the planning for this event will include coordinating training opportunities such as PAL Course, Wilderness Training, Search and Rescue Training, First Aid/CPR/AED training prior to the event.

If you have any further suggestions or comments, please provide them below. Thank you for taking time and we appreciate your input.
